Section 6: Special Meetings

- A. A special meeting may be called by the Board of Directors, and shall be called by the President upon written request of 1/3 or more of the Board of Directors or general membership. Notice of time, place, and purpose of the meeting shall be posted not less than five (5) days prior to the meeting.
- B. The voting body shall be the same as that in the general meeting.
- C. The quorum shall be as defined in Article VI, Section 5A.

Page 15

- D. Meetings that are not announced at the previous month's general meeting shall require that an appointee of the President shall call all Board of Directors members one week prior to the scheduled meeting.

ARTICLE VII: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: Definition

- A. The Board of Directors shall consist of the elected officers and committee chairpersons. The faculty advisors shall serve as ex-officio members without a vote.

Section 2: Summer Term

- A. All the powers of the A-STATE -SNA are vested in and shall be exercised by the Board of Directors during the interim between the spring and fall terms (the summer term), except that the Board of Directors shall not nullify or modify any action taken by the general membership in any meeting and is subject to the provisions of these bylaws.

Section 3: Limit of Liability

- A. The Board of Directors shall not be responsible for any contract, claim, or obligation of any kind incurred for any position taken by an officer, faculty advisor, or association member unless the same was authorized by a majority vote and in writing by the Board of Directors.

Section 4: Granted Powers

A. Management by the Board of Directors shall include the following:

1. Review and approve the terms of official relationships established with other organizations singly or in coalition.
2. Approve any commitment in the form of action, statement of policy or position, or financial obligations involved in A-STATE -SNA's relationships with other organizations.
3. Approve the budget and provide the annual audit of accounts at the close of the fiscal year.
4. Have the power to fill vacancies for the un-expired year, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws.
5. Have the power by 2/3 vote to declare an office vacant.

6. In case of an emergency, votes by referendum or by conference call, may be taken by the Board of Directors, provided the material is sent in the same words to the Secretary for record and subject to review by association members.
7. Bylaws will be reviewed annually by the Board of Directors after the February election meeting and prior to the May Strategic Planning Meeting.

Section 5: Meetings

- A. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least monthly and at such other times deemed necessary by a majority of the Committee. The Vice-President shall determine the date and place of the meetings.

B. The quorum shall be a majority of the members of the Board of Directors including the President or Vice-president, and at least one Faculty Advisor.

C. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to any general member, but a general member shall not have the power to vote in any election or question, and may speak once on each issue before the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII: COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors, at its discretion, shall establish committees deemed necessary to carry on the work of the A-STATE -SNA and determine the functions, terms, and membership of these committees. A quorum for committee meetings shall be a majority of the members of the committee. Committees

A. Definition: A Committee is a constituted as a body of eligible A-State SNA general members assigned to help with a specific task delegated by the President or Respective Office of the Board of Directors.

B. Eligibility: A Committee member must be an active member of the SNA. No eligible person may hold a position on any two committees at the same time.

C. Formation: Each committee should be defined and presented to the Board of Directors as to its purpose, expected duration, expected duties of the committee members, and estimate of how many members will make up the committee. The Board of Directors shall then vote on allowing the formation of the committee, 2/3 vote is required.

D. Duration: A Committee can exist for as long as the needed task or goal is still being accomplished, or the academic year (Spring and Fall Semester) is over. After either of the above criteria is met, the committee must disband.

E. Duties: Each committee member must perform their assigned duties by the Board of Directors member over the committee. If at any time, the assigned duty is considered unethical or illegal by the committee member, that person should not perform the duty and report immediately to the President, Vice President, or SNA Advisor for further action.

F. Oversight: A member of the Board of Directors, the President or Vice President, and the SNA Advisor must oversee the formation, duties of committee members, and disbanding of the committee. The member of the Board of Directors that directly oversees the committee's goal or task is responsible for all actions of the committee they oversee. The member of the Board of Directors shall present the progress of the committee at each regularly scheduled meeting. If a committee member is found not performing their assigned duties or has stopped performing their duties, unless for special circumstances (which they will speak to the committee director, President Vice President, or SNA Advisor), the Board of Directors member overseeing the committee can take the person off the committee. Their name shall also be turned in to the President, Vice President, and SNA Advisor and put on a list of persons who can no longer serve on committees in the future.

ARTICLE IX: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

All meetings of A-STATE -SNA and the Board of Directors shall be conducted according to parliamentary law as set forth in Robert's Rules Of Order - Newly Revised where the rules apply and are not in conflict with these bylaws. The President shall serve as parliamentarian over all meetings.

ARTICLE X: AMENDMENTS

Section 1:

- A. These bylaws may be amended at any general meeting by a 2/3 vote of those active members present and voting provided that notice of the proposed amendments has been announced to members at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting.

Section 2:

- A. Only the Board of Directors or A-STATE -SNA committee may submit proposed amendments. Proposed amendments shall be submitted in writing, carrying the proponent's signature, to the Board of Directors for review at least two (2) weeks prior to a general meeting.

Section 3:

- A. These bylaws may be amended at a general meeting by 99% vote of those active members present and voting, without the notice required in Section 1 of this Article, provided previous notice having been given at an earlier meeting of the same session, and provided that the proposed amendment shall have been presented to the presiding officer before the meeting where previous notice was given.

Section 4:

- A. Amendments to the bylaws of ANSA, adopted at the annual meeting of the ANSA, which directly relate to the business of the A-STATE -SNA in the areas of conformity, shall automatically and immediately affect the necessary amendments to the bylaws of the A-STATE -SNA and shall promptly be incorporated into A-STATE -SNA bylaws.
